

The Bridge

First Presbyterian Church of Granbury

September, 2022

From the pastor

Rev. Drew Travis
revdgtravis@gmail.com

“But we’ve always done it this way.” Well, at least for the last few years or for as long as memory serves. Habits are good. Consistency is comforting. Patterns of behavior are needed in life. No doubt these are all true. Yet, sometimes change comes and it feels a bit uneasy and we’re not sure we are going to like it. Still, every now and then, we dip our toes in the waters of change and we give it a try.

We’re going to try something a little different here at First Presbyterian, a little experiment, if you will. For the past many years – and for as long as I’ve been here as pastor – we have gone to just one worship service in the summer and then returned to our regular schedule of two services when September rolls around. It’s a rhythm to which we are accustomed. Most of you have enjoyed this change and there are always comments about how good it feels to worship in a full sanctuary. Often, there are surprised responses like, “I didn’t know they worshiped here! They must go to the other service!” It seems worshiping together in one service affords us an opportunity to claim a sense of community that we don’t always feel when we worship at separate times.

With that thought in mind, several church members approached the Worship Committee with the idea that we continue with one worship service this Fall rather than returning to our regular schedule of two services. The Worship Committee had a spirited conversation about the pros and cons of doing so and voted to recommend the Session consider the idea. The Session, in turn, had another good exchange about the idea and decided to spend a few days pondering the proposal in prayer before taking a final vote. When the vote was taken, the Session decided to remain with one service for the time being.

The overwhelming factor for this decision, it seems, is that after so many months of COVID and being separated and isolated from one another, it simply feels wonderful to be together in worship – all of us together. It’s about community. It’s about feeling close to the family of faith. The sanctuary feels alive. The hymns are vibrant and the singing fills the room. The children are all present at the same time and often they spread across the front of the chancel during the Children’s Time and it brings life to our gathering. The choir is in full force each Sunday and not moving back and forth from one service to the other on alternating Sundays. In short, worship feels alive and inviting and full of the Spirit. It simply feels good!

So, for the next couple of months we’re going to do a little experiment and give it a try. We will remain with one service of worship at 10:00 each Sunday at least through October 30th. Christian Education for both children and adults will be at 9:00 each Sunday. The choir, or groupings of choir members in ensembles, will sing at each service. During the next couple of months, the Session will closely monitor our attendance to make sure we have room to accommodate everyone who comes. We will pay attention to our visitors and watch to see their response to worshipping with us. We will listen to your comments and hear what you have to say about the change. We’ll pay close attention and we’ll decide whether to remain with one service or return to two based on our experience. We’re going to give it a try and we’ll make adjustments and changes as needed going forward. We hope everyone will practice a little patience and exercise a willing spirit so we can see where this may lead. It’ll be good for us to practice a little flexibility. Promise.

See you Sunday,

Worship

The Worship Committee is preparing for all the wonderful things that will be happening in the life of the church in the weeks and months ahead...from now all the way through Christmas Day which is on Sunday this year... we're looking forward to all the ways our church celebrates the greatness of God!

If you feel the Holy Spirit calling you to serve in a new way, we have a few opportunities for you to consider.

Are you able to push a button? Perhaps this easy but important opportunity is for you! We need two more volunteers to each be responsible for one Sunday per month to turn on the Live Stream of our worship service. All it takes is one click on the computer in memorial hall and the ability to push the pre-set buttons on a remote control during the service. Bianca Brownfield and Kathy Long have already agreed to be two of the four needed volunteers. It will be set up as one volunteer will take the first Sunday of each month, another takes the second Sunday of each month and so on. Emily Graham has provided simple to follow written instructions and has also made a YouTube video for instruction.

Do you have a good speaking voice? We are looking for several members who would like to be the Liturgist during worship services. This too is an easy but important opportunity to serve. There are no long term commitments, just an occasional Sunday when you would be at the pulpit reading scripture.

Are you a baker? We've asked before but are asking again... we would love to have someone who would bake the bread for communion! Preparing the elements for communion is a beautiful way to serve if you feel called to do so.

If you are interested in any of these opportunities or would like more information please feel free to contact me via a phone call or text to (318) 751-8367 or email at juliebutlerdean@gmail.com.

Peace and Love,
Julie

Stewardship

Dan Crise, Elder
dancrise13@gmail.com

Opportunities for Christian Stewardship abound all around us. In his marvelous sermon a few weeks ago, Pastor Drew preached that as followers of Christ, we are blessed each day in answer to our prayer for daily bread from God that is well beyond the individual needs of most, if not all, the members of our church. In fact, as Drew emphasized, the excess of our daily bread is like “icing on the cake”. Drew challenged how we might use the excess icing we’ve been blessed with to ice the cake of others who are less fortunate than ourselves and who are in need of the basic necessities for living, like food, shelter, and clothing, that we take for granted. In a nutshell, Drew’s message was a call to Christian Stewardship.

In praying the Lord’s Prayer, the plural form is used for all the pronouns. We say:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen*

When saying this prayer with the highlighted words in the plural form, we implicitly are not only appealing to God for ourselves, but also just as importantly on behalf of others while in our faithful service to God. The inherent message is that we are praying with and for all of God’s children for daily bread, many of whom are without clothes on their back, a roof over their head or food on their table. The image of bread as used in the Lord’s Prayer and elsewhere throughout the Bible signifies God’s love and protection for all of us. As Christian Stewards, through this prayer we commit to provide help and support for all of our brothers and sisters, not only in spirit but also through more tangible means. In praying for proverbial bread and other necessities of life for those who are deprived of them, we become vested as part of God’s hand at work. In scripture, James says:

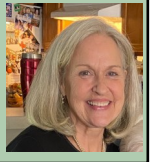

“What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, ‘Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill.’ and yet you don’t supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead” (James 2:15-17 NRSV)

So, as Christian Stewards, let’s all ice the cake of our brothers and sisters who really need it! As we approach Consecration Sunday when we will individually pledge our financial support in helping to sustain our church ministry and mission in the coming year, think also how we can both individually and collectively ice the cake of those in need, both in the local community and beyond.

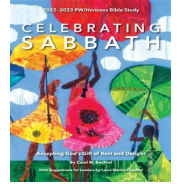

Presbyterian Women

Nancy Burks Worcester, moderator
nancybw@gmail.com

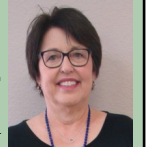

Everyone is invited to the regular Presbyterian Women meeting on September 9 at 10:30. Bring your favorite dish and your best ideas for our upcoming meetings. We will talk about what's planned and have a fun time of music, food, and fellowship! For more information contact Nancy Worcester at 817-578-0478

PW Bible Study will begin on Sept 6th at 10 AM. We're also offering an evening study at 7 PM on the same day (future lessons dates for evening will be determined by participants). Books can be picked up in the church office.

Membership

Marla Caraway, elder marlahill1001@gmail.com

We have enjoyed quite a few visitors this summer and some have expressed an interest in join in! It's always good news when we welcome others into our worship services or into membership at FPC.

Summer worship has been great with an almost completely filled sanctuary. It makes for a wonderfully spirit filled worship. I've been challenging myself to move around more. It's not always comfortable. I worry that I might be in "someone's space." And if I feel that way, imagine what a visitor feels. But if we move around a bit, it gives us the opportunity to worship next to someone we don't know well, maybe even a visitor. We might also have a few words with someone face to face that we've never met. I would encourage each of you to move around on Sunday mornings. Find a new seat for the day. Visit with folks that you don't normally sit by. Find a visitor to introduce yourself to and welcome them warmly. We will all be the better for it.

Membership Committee is putting together Visitors Gift Bags that will be delivered on Sunday afternoons after worship. As Membership Committee members, we don't always meet our visitors during worship. We look forward to having some interaction with them within a few days of their visit.

We will be hosting the next Inquirer's Meal on Sunday , September 25, 2022 (formally New Member and Prospective Member Dinner). If you are a new member, or a visitor that would like to learn more about us, please do plan to attend. The catered lunch will be right after worship service. Please contact me to RSVP (817-422-2169).

Labyrinth Update

As you may remember, the 125th Committee hopes to gift the community with a labyrinth in Shanley Park to commemorate our history. We are excited to inform the congregation that the Parks Board has unanimously approved the labyrinth to be built in Shanley Park. A committee has been named and will begin meeting early in September to move forward. Seed money is available from our 125th campaign, but we will be asking for support from the congregation to make the labyrinth a reality. At this time, the committee is seeking a representative from The Labyrinth Company in Greenville, South Carolina to work with us on design and materials. We ask for your prayers as we endeavor to bring this meaningful gift to our community.

But the Fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

During the Session retreat, we examined how we glorify God and show the 'fruit of the spirit' within the works of our church. Each month, a different elder will write about his or her faith in action and what is being done within his or her committee.

Stewardship Committee: Elder in charge - Dan Crise

All of the fruit of the spirit are vital aspects of Christian Stewardship but perhaps the most influential one is the fruit of love. Stewardship reflects our gratitude to God's love for us and for the many gifts He has entrusted to us. Christian Stewards bask in the wonder and awe of God's love. The more deeply one grows in the return of their love to God, the more they grow in their heart to believe stewardship as a Christian way of life. The spirituality of stewardship enables us to recognize the greatness of God. God who created us with a Father's love. God who redeemed us with the sacrifice of His Son. God who enriches us by the sending of His Spirit. As Christians, we recognize God's gifts are to be used to glorify Him and to share with our brothers and sisters within His Kingdom, as it is deeply rooted in scripture. Together in our journey of faith, may God bless us and may we respond as faithful disciples, and by extension, as faithful stewards with the spirit of love.

The Stewardship Committee is currently planning Consecration Sunday, which will occur on November 13, 2022. This will be a time when we will give prayerful thought about how much God is asking each of us to pledge for the financial support of our church ministry and mission for the Year 2023. Information on Consecration Sunday will be sent out to everyone in a few weeks. Although it will be a glorious day to celebrate our love to God, we should not consider this a singular Stewardship event. We all should think of Stewardship as a way of living and as part of our daily lives each day of the year in committing to the discipleship of Jesus Christ.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY OF HOOD COUNTY

Since 1996, 111 homes have been built largely through the shared work of volunteers and the recipient families.

Starting in September, they will resume their building schedule in Granbury. As a church, we will continue to provide lunch for the volunteers on the third Wednesday of the month.

Look for a sign-up sheet in the narthex in early September.

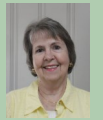

*There are also two volunteer opportunities:
Building and Serving Lunch*

If you'd like to volunteer to help work on the houses, go to their website <https://habitatofhoodcounty.org> for more information and to complete a safety course.

If you'd like to help SERVE lunch to the volunteers two hours each Wednesday and/or Saturday to help set out and serve the donated lunches, please contact Kathy Gwinn at 817.296.9809.

Prayer of the Month

Gloria Mitchell, coordinator
glomitch5300@gmail.com

We know that God sometimes works in mysterious ways. And I think the saying “When one door closes, another one opens” often refers to God’s ways.

I recently read an article in Guideposts that falls into that category. A lady named Allie worked in childcare for 30 years and loved it. When COVID hit, she lost that job and couldn’t find another in childcare. God had a new plan for her. She began working in an assisted living center. When told she would be taking care of patients with dementia, she was not pleased. But it turned into a blessing. She grew to love many of her patients. One door closed and another opened.

I had a similar situation almost 20 years ago. I had worked 17 years, as a teacher assistant with students who had learning problems. I was devastated when I learned that my job would not be there the next year, because I loved working with students. Not able to find another position, I decided to retire but work as a sub in 2 school districts. I subbed in many schools and made many friends. An acquaintance asked if I would sub for her, but I declined. I didn’t want to work with students who had special needs. But while subbing at that school, I observed her students during breakfast duty, and liked them so I gave it a try. I loved working with them there, and at other schools also. They hold a special place in my heart. As in the story above, the door that opened for me also turned into a blessing.

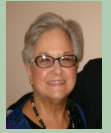

Dear Lord, we thank you for the mysterious ways you sometimes work, creating the wonderful events that happen in our lives. When we are discouraged, help us to know that better days are ahead. Schools have begun their fall semesters. Please help the teachers as they handle the many challenges of teaching. Help the students absorb their lessons and help them remember to be kind to each other. And most of all, please keep all the schools safe.

In Jesus name we pray, Amen.

Fellowship

Linda Allen, elder
lindaallen33047@gmail.com

Here we are at the end of summer. Kids and teachers head back to school and the church gears up for fall activities. One of our fall events is our Flu Shot Clinic. It is scheduled for Sunday, October 9th. Ron's Pharmacy will be in Fellowship Hall after church to administer flu shots and also COVID boosters should anyone need it. If you have Medicare, be sure and bring your card for their records. There will be a sign-up sheet in the Narthex later in September.

There is a new round of Small Group Dinners starting. It will be for September through November. We normally skip December because it is so busy. The sign-up sheet has been in the Narthex since Sunday, August 14th and it will be taken up after church on the 21st. If you missed the sign-up, you can still text Linda Allen (432-290-3506) and let her know you want to join. All of our members know how much fun they are and, for our new members, don't miss this opportunity to get to know everyone and enjoy great food. Get-togethers can be dinner, breakfast, brunch, or lunch in your home or at a restaurant, whatever works best for you and your group.

I just found a new crockpot recipe and it was so easy and delicious! You might want to try it.

Crockpot Salisbury Steak

4 pre-formed hamburger patties – place in bottom of crockpot

Add salt and pepper, a little Montreal Steak Seasoning, 1/2 cup chopped onions, and 1 cup sliced mushrooms. (If you don't have fresh mushrooms, add canned ones when meat is almost done.)

Mix 1/4 cup flour with 1 cup beef broth and stir or shake till well mixed. Pour this over the top of the meat. Cook on high 4 hours.

Mark Your Calendar

The dates have been set for the Fall Rummage sale. The sale will be on Friday October 7th and Saturday October 8th. We will have volunteer sign up sheets starting the middle of September. We will need volunteers starting October 2nd after church, with setting up tables and clothing racks and then throughout that week with sorting and pricing sale items and, of course, volunteers during the sale. This is a great time to start cleaning out those closets and hopefully soon it will be cool enough to work in the sheds and garages.

We do not have the storage space at the church so please keep your items at home until October 2nd thru 6th. We will also provide drop off times closer to October. Due to the lack of space and also trying to save the backs of the volunteers we cannot accept large heavy furniture, large appliances (including microwaves), mattresses, bedframes, tv's, computers, and printers. We will provide a more detailed list as we get closer.

Lots of work but so much fun and it is the main fun raiser for PW. The money we make helps many charitable organizations.

F.U.N. Circle

Bev McKusick
F.U.N. circle coordinator

FUN circle has lots of exciting things happening this year. We are starting on September 28th at 10am in the Fellowship Hall, and will be refreshing the flower arrangements we use for special events. Don't worry if God didn't bless you with the flower arranging gift, he passed me by on that one too, just come and have fun with us. There is always something you can help with. It's not always about the project but the fellowship with people who share your faith. I think of every event I attend as a recharging station. It recharges my faith in God before I head out into the community.

If you have wire cutters please bring them. We will also need Styrofoam, sphagnum moss, and flowers. So if you want to clean some items out of your craft room, this is the perfect opportunity.

We will close our meeting with a potluck lunch. Sandwiches, salads, and of course desserts.

October 26th Kay McMillan is going to teach us how to make greeting cards and other fabulous things with paper. One of the first times I went to F.U.N. circle Kay was teaching this class. I have to tell you it has been my favorite of all the FUN circles. You don't want to miss this one!

I also want to give a heads up for January and February. We will be making bags again for C.C'S Carry On. I mention it now because sometimes you run across some really great bargains on the items we will need. I will get the list put together for the October article but if you have helped us before you know most of the items we need.

Have a wonderful Labor Day and we will see you on the 28th.

Sewing circle will begin on Tuesday September 20th at noon in the Fellowship hall. We have been asked by the Worship committee to make a new banner for the sanctuary. This is a new type of project for most of us, so if you have experience in making banners please join us. If you don't have any experience in sewing or banner making we also have plenty things to keep you busy. We are also looking for future projects. There are several things that have been suggested for the nursing homes but I have found that other groups are providing those items so keep the suggestions coming.

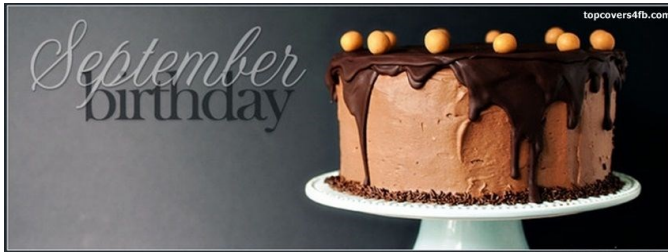

Bring a lunch if you would like. We generally start the meeting with lunch while we discuss the project and decided who will be doing which part of the project.

Everyone is invited to join us regardless of your sewing skills or even if you want to learn a new hobby.
