

The Bridge

First Presbyterian Church of Granbury

November, 2022

From the pastor

Rev. Drew Travis
revdgtravis@gmail.com

Finally, we seem to be beyond the 90 degree weather and headed toward the fall! As I write this, it is raining and the parched earth is getting a long-awaited bit of nourishment. It feels good outside when I step out in the morning. I am indeed grateful when the seasons change this time of year. All these clues are reminders that things are about to pick up around the church as we rush into the last two months of the year. It's time.

I hope each of you will take advantage of the many opportunities to be part of this wonderful community we call First Presbyterian over the next couple of months. I assure you, there are many events on the calendar.

On Sunday, November 6, we will celebrate All Saints. We will recall the saints who have entered the Church Triumphant in the past year and will remember those who have been important to us in our faith formation, who have served as examples of faithful living in our lives. It's a moving service of worship and a hopeful experience as we give thanks to God for the gifts of these lives.

November 13 is our Consecration Sunday. That's the day we gather to worship and dedicate our gifts and offerings of thanksgiving to God. Traditionally, we bring our pledges of gifts to church with us that day and bring them forward during the offering. It's an important part of our life together and is always a moving experience in our morning worship. Following worship, we'll gather in the Fellowship Hall for a catered meal to celebrate with gratitude our life together. I hope you will return your reservations for this meal when your packet arrives in the coming days. The church covers the cost of the meal.

Granbury's Night of Lights Christmas Parade is the Friday following Thanksgiving, November 25. Many of our members and our neighbors will gather in front of the Administration Building to view the parade and to be present when the lights are turned on around the square. It's a wonderful way to begin the Christmas Season. We'll serve hot chocolate and enjoy the warmth of the occasion together.

The choir will present its annual Christmas Cantata during morning worship on Sunday, December 11. The choir works hard to deliver this musical offering and it is always a joyous and worshipful experience as we move through the Advent Season together and head toward Christmas. You will want to be present.

Our Christmas Eve Candlelight and Communion service will take place at 7:00 pm on Christmas Eve. This service includes lessons and carols and a chance to slow down and take in the beauty of our candlelit sanctuary on the eve before our Lord's birth. For me, this service of worship officially launches Christmas and opens our hearts to the reality of God's love shown us in the gift of Christ Jesus. The light really does shine in the darkness and the darkness does not overcome it. Christmas falls on Sunday this year and we will hold a less formal worship service Christmas morning to continue our celebration.

I hope you'll mark these events on your calendars and plan to participate in all of them. They will each enrich our experience of faith and remind us of the wonder of being part of this church community. Be there.

See you Sunday – and a bunch of other times,

Stewardship

Dan Crise, Elder
dancrise13@gmail.com

November is a month for giving thanks and gratitude, both as Americans and as followers of Christ. On the fourth Thursday of every November, we celebrate the national holiday of Thanksgiving. Typically, Thanksgiving Day is a day when we watch football games non-stop for several hours, overindulge by eating too much turkey and pumpkin pie, and for many to develop their plan of attack for Black Friday shopping, However, as Christians we also use Thanksgiving Day as a time to praise God and thank Him for the many gifts and blessings He has given to each of us. When we grasp the magnitude of these gifts and blessings, we cannot help but be thankful for His goodness and mercy. In giving thanks to God, we are reminded of how deeply loved we are and that there is purpose in our lives.

Giving thanks to God is deeply rooted in many passages of biblical scripture. A prominent example is “Enter His gates with thanksgiving, and His courts with praise! Give thanks to Him; bless His name! For the Lord is good. His steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.” (Psalm 100:4-5)

In our church, November is also the month when we joyfully celebrate Consecration Sunday as the hallmark of our annual stewardship effort. This year’s Consecration Sunday celebration will be on November 13th. This is always a happy and joyous occasion in the life of our church. On that glorious day, we will all come together at one worship service in gratitude for God’s grace and loving touch. During this special service, we will all have the opportunity as stewards of the gifts we have received from God to demonstrate our love and thanks to Him by returning a portion of those gifts as financial pledges to our church. These pledges will help fund our ministry and mission for the upcoming year of 2023. Following the service, we will join together to celebrate this special day with a catered luncheon at Fellowship Hall featuring a medley of pasta and sauces finished off with cheesecake and a variety of toppings for dessert.

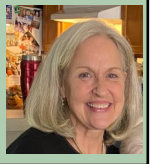

A package of information regarding Consecration Sunday will soon be sent to all our church members and friends. Included in this package will be an estimate of giving card and an invitation and RSVP for the after-service luncheon. Receiving this package before Consecration Sunday will allow time for everyone to give prayerful thought to how much God is asking them to pledge. Everyone is requested to bring their estimate of giving cards to the Consecration Service to share in our time of offering during the worship. If that is inconvenient, feel free to mail your pledge card to the church office. Also, please promptly return your RSVP for the luncheon invitation and reservation so that we will know how many will be attending.

We hope to see everyone at the Consecration Service on November 13th at 10:00 am. Please mark your calendar for this important date and time.

But the Fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

During the Session retreat, we examined how we glorify God and show the 'fruit of the spirit' within the works of our church. Each month, a different elder will write about his or her faith in action and what is being done within his or her committee.

Long-Range Planning: Elder in charge - Terry Worcester

I began looking for what the Fruit of the Spirit means and what it means to Christians. Here is what I found and it was a beautiful journey for me. I hope it enlightens you as well.

Christ said we are known by our fruit, so what is the good fruit to aspire to? The Apostle Paul mentions the "fruit of the Spirit" that Christians should work to cultivate in their heart and mind. I understand Paul wanted us to think like Christians and he made it simple by referring to what basic values we should each have. I call these "basic" but really in each of their own definition, they should be called "essential" to our Christian values.

Love denotes an undefeatable benevolence and unconquerable goodwill that always seeks the highest good for others, no matter their behavior. It is a love that gives freely without asking anything in return and does not consider the worth of its object. To me, Love is the purist of all feelings. It cannot be measured or changed. In essence, it means you give your whole heart. You give your feelings easily, and without compromise.

Joy is intense and especially ecstatic or exultant happiness, or an instance of such feeling. To me, joy is a happiness that is uplifting to the soul and your present state of mind. So I take it that like "Joy to the World" song would mean happiness to the world and all that is a part of it.

Peace is the absence of war or other hostilities. An agreement or a treaty to end hostilities. Freedom from quarrels and disagreement; harmonious relations. To me, peace is the feeling that one gets when everything goes right and your inner soul seems to be in good spirit and no pressures of any kind are on one's mind.

Patience is "slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." The quality of being patient, as the bearing of provocation, annoyance, misfortune, or pain, without complaint, loss of temper, irritation, or the like.

Kindness one of the most acts, I wish the world had more of. By definition it is the state or quality of being kind; good will; benevolence; beneficence of action or manner. Giving to another and not expecting anything in return. It comes from within our soul, it cannot be duplicated or summoned, it just exists within us. I love this word and I would hope it defines me. There is nothing more fulfilling than an act of kindness.

Goodness The state or quality of being good, in any sense; excellence; purity; virtue; grace; benevolence. Goodness in man is not a mere passive quality, but the deliberate preference of right to wrong, the firm and persistent resistance of all moral evil, and the choosing and following of all moral good.

Faithfulness I love this word and in its essence it is allegiance, attachment, commitment, constancy, dedication, devotedness, devotion, faith, fastness, fealty, fidelity, loyalty. This word as faith alone means to trust and pledge our heart to without having to see it with our own eyes but what we feel in our own soul.

Gentleness Sensitivity of disposition and kindness of behavior, founded on strength and prompted by love. Examples- The New Testament. That king, now come in the flesh, is "gentle and humble in heart." (Matt 11:29)

Self Control - Control of one's emotions, desires, or actions by one's own will. I would think biblically it means: While we cannot control every circumstance in our lives, we can control how we respond to the circumstance or the situation. Self-control helps us respond in the correct way that honors God and brings Him glory.

I hope this article has touched your life in a positive way today. I hope it brings an awareness in a way that each of these most important fruits of the spirit rest within your soul.

God Bless all and keep you safe.

Christmas Gifts

In November and December, we will be delivering Holiday cheer to our neighbors at the Housing Authority. We'll deliver food for Thanksgiving, a Ham for Christmas, Advent Calendars for children and Holiday Word Search Puzzle Books for adults.

In addition, we will deliver Christmas Gift bags with a fuzzy blanket, comfy socks, snacks, a few practical items and we'll include a game for each family.

If You'd like to donate directly to the gifts, there will be a box in the narthex in early December and you can bring your gifts there or to the office:

- A chenille or sherpa throw blanket
- warm socks (for adults or kids)
- tin of popcorn (for the families)

In Mid-December, we'll have a festive gathering to pack up and deliver the Christmas Gifts. Keep your eyes open for a date and you are welcome to join in this lovely Holiday tradition.

Prayer of the Month

Gloria Mitchell, coordinator
glomitch5300@gmail.com

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands, Serve the Lord with gladness
Come into his presence with praise! Know ye that the Lord is God!

It is he that made us, and we are his, we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise! Give thanks to him, bless his name!

For the Lord is good: His steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.

Psalm 100

November is the month of thanksgiving and I've been thinking of things to be thankful for. God and Jesus come first. We are very blessed to have such a wonderful church, awesome preacher and congregation. I think Granbury is a wonderful place to live and although the leaves aren't showing their autumn beauty yet, they looked as though they were filled with diamonds today. Of course, it was just the sun shining on them, but it made me thank God for the beautiful world he created.

I am sad that our congregation lost 2 very special members this month. But I am thankful that we had the opportunity to know Peggy Losher and J.D. Finley.

Dear God, thank you for your love, our church, our wonderful preacher, Drew Travis, our wonderful congregation, our beautiful seasons, and our special memories of Peggy Losher and J.D. Finley. Thank you that you are always there for us, and we can go to you when we have troubles, and you listen to our prayers.

In Jesus name, Amen

My goodness it's November already. I didn't even get my Halloween decorations up this year and now it's time for Thanksgiving. There are so many things to be thankful for. I try to start and end everyday with saying my thankful list. Even if you had a really bad day there is something to be thankful for. This month the FUN Circle group will be working with the Deck the Halls committee. This will be on Monday, November 21, 9:00 am. Please come lend a hand. Have a wonderful Thanksgiving.

Sewing Circle meeting this month will be on Tuesday November 15th. We are still working on the banner but I also want to get started on cutting fabric for the CC Carryon bags. This will save a lot of time when it's time to sew them. So no sewing skills required so come join us. If you want to bring a brown bag lunch we will begin the afternoon with lunch and work plan.

C C'S CARRYON'S

C C's Carryon's is an organization that supplies 1st night bags to children that have been taken from their homes and placed in foster care. Usually they have no items with them when they leave their home. Unfortunately, this has been a bad year and their supplies of the 1st night bags are very depleted. Our FUN Circle has supplied them with 1st night bags for several years. The FUN Circle will be collecting items and making 1st night bags in January. If you are out shopping and come across some great sales take advantage of them. We have a spot in the admin building where you can drop these items off if you don't want to keep them at your house.

Items we will need for 0 to 12 months:

Diapers, Pajamas, Socks, Pacifier, Small soft toy/taggy blankets, Interactive toy, and Teether toy

For 2T to 3T:

The list is basically the same as above with the exception of pull ups instead of diapers. When purchasing stuffed animals and toys please remember all of this must fit in a gallon size storage bag, so think small.

The next group I would like for us to help with again is the 10-15 year old group:

T shirts, Soft shorts, Underwear, Socks, and Stuffed animals.

Toiletry bags:

Deodorant, Toothbrush, Toothpaste, Shampoo, Conditioner, Soap, Lotion, Lip balm, Flashlight, Comb/hairbrush, Shower sponge, Nail clippers, and Emery board.

All of these supplies should be small. This is a good time to get rid of all the hotel bottles that you brought home from a trip and never used. Everything should be travel size.

We will have more information as the time gets closer but wanted to give you the list so you can start looking for items. Thank you so much for your support.

Fellowship will be helping the Stewardship Committee with their annual luncheon on Consecration Sunday in November. It will be a catered event. You can read more about it in Dan Crise's article in this newsletter.

In December, there is always a fellowship event following the Choir's Christmas Cantata. This year it is on December 11th. We are planning a pot-luck luncheon with everyone bringing soup or sandwiches.

At the last PW luncheon, Jamie Sanders brought a dish that everyone loved. She kindly shared the recipe with us. Thanks, Jamie!

ORANGE TAPIOCA FRUIT SALAD

- 1 pkg. tapioca pudding (not instant)
- 1 (3 oz) pkg. orange Jell-O
- 1 pkg vanilla pudding (not instant)
- 3 cups hot water
- 1 can mandarin oranges drained
- 1 can chunk pineapple drained

Blend hot water with tapioca, orange Jell-O and vanilla pudding. Bring to boil but do not cook longer than that. (I stir mine several times while it is coming to a boil to keep it from sticking to the bottom of the pan.) Cool.

Add oranges and pineapple and store in frig until serving.

One service on Sundays at 10:00 a.m.

The Session will continue to monitor our attendance and assess the need for a second service and we will continue to listen to the needs and opinions of the congregation on this matter.

Please remember to lock all doors, if you are the last person to leave any of the FPC buildings. For all our safety!
