Pastor's Pen...

Rev. Angela Madden Scott, pastor

Dear Faith Family of Granbury,

Have you ever had one of those days when no matter what you tried to do, and no matter how hard you tried to do it, nothing seemed to go right? I have plenty of these days. Perhaps you recall a day that goes something like this: I sent the dog out to do her morning job: picking up the paper at the sometimes remote end of the driveway and/or desired front door. While I left her to retrieve the paper, I did what I do on most mornings: I multi-tasked. I placed a bagel in the toaster and went back to the front door. My dog and the paper were not back. I stepped partially outside of the house to see my dear and beloved dog dancing in the rain (with my newspaper). At this same time, I started to smell a fire—in the kitchen. The bagel was lodged in the toaster and smoking like a new piece of wood.

As I turned on the hair dryer to dry the paper—I noticed on the news a commentary on “taking time to pamper yourself.” Yeah right—like that’s going to happen today, I thought to myself. With the crinkly and wrinkled paper in hand, I continued on with my morning. In the car on the way to pick up a curb-order at Walmart, I realized that I was missing something—my morning devotion. I had not taken any time in the haste to read God’s Word for the day—let alone prepare myself to share it.

Distractions are a part of everyday life. Distractions are very normal. Many people put off something that brings them joy (ie. Reading God’s Word, Morning Devotions, and Listening to God) just because they haven’t “thought about it, don’t have it on their schedule, didn’t know it was coming or are too rigid to depart from their routine.” The same anonymous email philosopher says in an online email “Americans cram so much into their lives, they tend to schedule their headaches. Americans live on a sparse diet of promises that we make to ourselves to do something when all of the conditions are perfect”

(www.communitycomcast.net). We place conditions on serving God when the time is more convenient. We promise to read the Bible when our laundry is dried. We promise to seek God’s justice—when it makes more “sense” to us.

Martha, Martha/People, People, Jesus says to us in Luke 10: 38-42—you and I have our priorities messed up. When was the last time that you, like Mary of Bethany, sat quietly at Jesus’ feet? When was the last time that you spent time listening to God? Ministry loves company. God loves your company.

Martha was preparing for company—she was getting ready to entertain her friend Jesus. Maybe she wanted things to be perfect. Perhaps she wanted the cushions on her eggplant colored couch to be clean and fluffy. Maybe Martha wanted fresh flowers in a vase in the center of the table. Or, fresh flowers in the yard around the house. She wanted crisp linens on the table, and her nicest stoneware set for the meal. Then, she wanted those dainty little hand-made doilies that we pay a fortune for today. Of course, Martha wanted the meal to be just perfect, too. Lamb kabobs with lentils, homemade honey and cream, fresh fruit cups, and aromatic tea. It is easy to relate to Martha—how many of us have prepared for company days, maybe weeks, prior to our guests’ arrival? By the time the guests come—we are tired, distracted, and miss the meaning of the whole visit. How many of us go to great lengths to have the appearances of perfection in our homes and our lives?

Martha, Martha—poor Martha. How are you like Martha? What are the distractions that keep you from focusing on God? Laundry? Working? Sports? Carting kids around the states to sporting events? Self-focus on health problems? It is likely that we are so busy—whether we are children, college-aged, middle-aged, seniors, or retired—that we do not take time to make room for God in the houses of our hearts. Ministry loves company—and yet we don't give God any of our company. Isn't it possible that we busy ourselves with hundreds of small tasks—to keep ourselves from feeling the weight of the real task: getting closer to God?

Distractions include cramming a lot into our daily living and making promises to God that fall through due to the haste of our busy lives.

A Presbyterian Missionary in Ghana has devoted his entire life to God. And yet, he, this devoted Mission servant, struggles to be Mary. Glen Hallead writes (May 21, 2007 www.pcusa.org/missionconnections): “Another day, more counseling with missionaries here in Ghana struggling with the question of whether their ministry is worth the trouble. No sense of personal accomplishment in my tasks... how do I measure success?”

Glen comes to the realization that success for God cannot be measured by outcomes. Outcomes that work in the secular world...Returns on investment, profit margins, contact hours, office visits, billable hours, and time spent reading, these types of tangible quantifiers—do not always equal the outcome that we desire. A child can spend hours reading—and still not comprehend. Christian success—comes in the understanding that ministry loves company. Developing relationships allows ministry to take place.

Relationships start first with your relationship with Jesus. Mary knew this, and she eagerly sat at Jesus feet. You imagine her hanging on his every Word. Mary knew that Jesus needed a friend more than a good meal. Jesus needs your friendship too. Martha, on the other hand, missed out. She was setting her own agenda. It is easy to conclude that Martha wanted to make things perfect for Jesus—because she fully appreciated his identity as God's Son. It is more difficult for us to see in Martha those other parts of her personality that we don't want to see in ourselves. The parts of Martha that resented Mary's faithful devotion to God's son; the part of Martha that was jealous of Mary's ability to “get” God's message; The embarrassed part of Martha that was embarrassed that Mary, a woman, would have the audacity to call herself one of Jesus' disciples...let alone sit at his feet. These are the parts of Martha: the resentful, jealous, embarrassed parts—that we don't want to acknowledge in ourselves. Who do you keep at arm's length instead of loving?

Distractions. They keep us numb—they keep us from feeling and prevent us from really focusing on reality. The interesting thing about distractions—we think that we are hiding behind them—when in actuality—we become fairly transparent. From the kitchen, we still hear what is going on in the living rooms of our lives. We know what is there—that we, like Martha, want to avoid Jesus. Rather, ministry is successful when it equips people to live a courageous life. Mary courageously sat at Jesus' feet. She risked persecution in her society. She risked mockery by her sister. She practiced courage to be in the company of Jesus. So, now, should we.

It is true that we have chores to do. It is really true that I have a gazillion boxes to unpack. It is a reality that we have to make a living, prepare meals, and clean up the dishes. It is true that we choose to stay up for hours reading a new book. The greater truth, though, is that Mary chose the better part, “listening to God's Son,” and that part will never be taken away from her.

Ministry loves company. Jesus needs yours. I need yours. Let's help each other listen to Jesus together.

Your Pastor,
Pastor Angela

PS I welcome having a chance to know you and become your newest lifelong friend! Maybe you would like for me to stop by your home, office, boat, front porch with coffee or cookies or even with my calico cat? Perhaps you haven't been ready to start a friendship but feel eager now. Perhaps you want to make a memory with your new pastor, and you are ready to let me in to your heart and home? Let me know what works for you: 620-388-5780. Here is my invitation to you: I “do nut” know what I would do without you: Stop by my church office for DONUTS 10-11 a.m. any day

Monday through Thursday June 10-13!

Worship

Pat Luley, elder

June is the start of an exciting time in the life of our congregation with the arrival of our new Pastor Angela Madden Scott. We all need to be sure to thank our Pastor Nominating Committee for working so diligently to find the perfect match for us!

Pastor Angela's sermon titles this month and their Scriptural bases are listed here so that you may become familiar with them ahead of time.

I don't know about you, but I think these titles are intriguing and I can hardly wait to hear them!

June Sermon Titles and Texts

June 2: Play the Ball Where the Monkey Drops It
Ephesians 2:11-12 and 2 Samuel 7:1-16

June 9: Joy that LASTS and LASTS

Prayer of the Month

Gloria Mitchell, coordinator

We have a lot to be thankful for: our yards and our outdoor plants have benefited greatly from all the rain we've received. Summer weather seems to be on the way. The pools and lakes will soon be warm enough for swimming. Teachers and students are looking forward to their summer breaks. Many people are planning vacations to see family, others will be visiting scenic places. We at First Presbyterian are especially looking forward to our new pastor arriving and leading our church.

Dear God, we pray that our congregation and our families will stay safe in their travels and safe in the pools and lake activities. We also pray that Angela Madden Scott will feel our warm welcome when she arrives, and that she and her family will love living in Granbury. Amen.

Thank you to all the Children's Sunday School Teachers!

It has been a beautiful year of growth for our littlest ones. Thank you to each of the teachers for the love, kindness, and joy that you brought to this ministry.

Seekers in Sneakers!

This year at Vacation Bible School, children will use investigative skills to discover Jesus!

Geocaching activities will challenge children to dig into the Bible to find the way to Jesus. VBS is a great opportunity to make new friends, sing fun songs, solve clue puzzles, do art projects and science explorations, and play active games. We hope you will join us!

We need volunteers to make VBS a success! There are many tasks to do before, during, and after VBS.

Prayerfully consider how you can support the children of this congregation and the local community. We need volunteers in the following places:

- Snack Station Support
- Small Group Leaders
- Temple Study Station Leaders (Bible activities)
- Seaside Exploration Station Leaders (art and science activities)
- Setup, cleanup, floaters, photographer, and more!

This year's directors are Julie Dean (juliebutlerdean@gmail.com, 318-751-8367) and Emily Graham (wwemilygraham@gmail.com, 817-578-5420) and can be reached by email or phone.

Please Note that children's Sunday School is on break until September.
ENJOY THE SUMMER!

Presbyterian Women

Nancy Burks Worcester, moderator

Presbyterian Women met on Friday, May 10 for their final meeting of the 2023-2024 year. Following a brief business meeting, the ladies were entertained by the local women's choral group: The Melody Belles. The concert of old favorites such as "Over the Rainbow", "Moon River", and "It Might as Well be Spring", had everyone swaying and/or tapping their toes. It was a wonderful performance by a very talented group of ladies, some of whom are our fellow congregation members.

After the concert, the choir joined the church ladies for a delicious lunch of salad, sandwiches and pastries catered by Baked, a local bakery.

Sacred Encounters

Lessons 8 & 9 - June 4th 10 AM
Fellowship Hall

Bring a sack lunch - we'll have 2 lessons!

Lesson 8 - Acts 16:11-15
Lesson 9 - Acts 9:36-43

Baptism connects us to God and the community of faith. The community of faith relies on the power of Jesus Christ during times of crises.

A decorative graphic with a light beige background. At the top, the title "Sacred Encounters" is written in a dark brown, cursive font. Below it, a white rectangular area with a light blue grid pattern contains text in a dark brown, sans-serif font. The text includes the date and time of the lessons, a request to bring a sack lunch, and the specific Bible verses for each lesson. At the bottom of the graphic, there are stylized illustrations of a green monstera leaf and a yellow and orange brushstroke.

Church Library/Meeting Room is available to both adults and children. It is located in the Administration Building.

Stewardship

Dan Crise, Elder

As has been written in previous Bridge articles on this subject, Christian Stewardship is often misconstrued and misunderstood as being exclusively about financial giving to the church. Hopefully we've learned that stewardship goes beyond monetary matters. The word "stewardship" is commonly defined as the prudent and responsible guardianship of something considered to be of great value that is entrusted to one's care. For Christians, stewardship is about recognizing and appreciating the gifts from God that are entrusted to each of us as His stewards and what we should do with them.

Understanding and practicing good Christian stewardship of God's gifts is a crucial expression of our faith in Jesus Christ as our savior. If we look at various examples of biblical scripture, it becomes abundantly clear that we are encouraged to share the gifts we have received from God for use in building the faith within our congregation and in service and care to our members and others outside the church. The Bible tells us, "Like good stewards of the grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received." (1 Peter 4:10 NRSV)

All of us have been granted unique God-given gifts of time, talent, creativity, ingenuity, intelligence, strength of character, physical abilities, and other special skills and attributes. As followers of Christ and stewards of these gifts, we are called upon to use them in service to God and our church.

There are countless opportunities to use our collective God-given gifts in service to the church. Random examples include, but definitely are not limited to, answering the call to serve on the Session, joining and working on a committee, helping with the myriad tasks of the garage sales, visiting home-bound or hospitalized members, driving members to church who are themselves unable to drive, participating in our outreach and benevolence programs, assisting in fellowship functions, to name just a few. These examples represent stewardship in action.

If some of these examples sound like something you could and would like to become involved with or if you have other ideas on how to share your time and talents, why not put them into action as an act of stewardship with God's grace and blessing?

Safety Team

Hayward Moore, Chair

The second Severe Weather Evacuation Drill was held on May 19th. Using lessons learned from our 2023 event, we managed to reduce the time it took to clear the Sanctuary from 6 1/2 minutes to 5 minutes.

Congratulations to all those who participated and helped the Safety Team go through this very important exercise.

Join Us for Summer Choir

Summer Choir begins on June 9th. Anyone that would like to try out singing in the choir, please join us in Memorial Hall at 9:30 on Sunday mornings to practice a traditional/gospel piece for each service.

Fellowship

Bev McKusick, elder

FUN Circle: As of this writing we have not completed the calendar for 2024/25, but it looks like we will have a wonderful schedule for next year. I'm hoping you all have a wonderful summer, and I look forward to starting again on September 25th.

FELLOWSHIP: Summer is here, and I know many of our church organizations take a break for the summer, but not Fellowship. We have lots of things happening in June and July, so save these dates on your calendars. June 2nd we are having a welcome party for Pastor Angela, Jack, and Major. We will have finger sandwiches, fruit, and vegetables for lunch, and top it off with cake. Please join us in giving a Big Texas welcome to the Scotts.

On June 9th we are going to join in a traditional birthday celebration for Major after Church.

Friday June 28th is our annual church picnic. It will be at the Bentwater Country Club. It is a lovely facility with enough room for all of us to be indoors in air conditioning. If you prefer the heat, there is a covered outdoor seating area. The Fellowship committee is hard at work planning the event. Keep an eye out for more details as the time gets closer. There is a rumor that we may have a cornhole tournament, and we do have a pickle ball court available. If you have any suggestions for activities, please let someone on the Fellowship committee know. We are going to have a great party.

July 4th we will celebrate our nation's independence with our annual hotdog lunch following the parade. We'll have all the fixin's and cold beverages plus an air-conditioned place to enjoy the lunch. Invite your family and friends to join us.

The recipe this month is a family favorite. I used to make these a lot when my kids were at home. They loved cookies, but I hated heating up the oven to make cookies in the summer. Enjoy.

NO BAKE COOKIES

3 c. quick cooking oats, uncooked
1/2 c. peanut butter
2 c. sugar
1/2 c. butter
1/2 c. milk
3 TBLS unsweetened cocoa powder
1 pinch salt
1 tsp. vanilla extract

Bring sugar, margarine, milk, cocoa, and salt to a rapid boil in a saucepan for 1 minute. Add quick-cooking oats, peanut butter, and vanilla and mix well. Working quickly, drop by teaspoonfuls onto waxed paper and let cool.

SEWING CIRCLE: We are not having scheduled meetings, but we do have a couple of projects that we will need to start working on, so keep your eyes open for a blast and Facebook notice for a sewing circle date and time.

 If you need transportation to a doctor's appointment, etc. please contact the church office, Tim Bennett, Dan Crise, or Susan Younk. We are pleased to help!

We mourn the passing of our dear member Bertha Cunningham, and keep her family members in our prayers.

Wishing God's blessings to: Beverly and Don Williams on their move to Florida and Trish and Ted Gollar on their move to Fort Worth.

THANK you for the warm, warm, Texas Welcome! Major and Jack and I are overwhelmed by the warmth of your hearts. The meals, the calls, the texts, the help unpacking, the hugs, the home and hotel while we got settled, all of these and more have meant the world to us! We are thanking God to be serving Christ alongside each of YOU!

To my Church Family: My husband and I want to express our sincerest gratitude for the many prayers and well wishes that we have received during the past few months as Jim was in sudden need of heart surgery, and I endured a more recent knee replacement. It has been a really challenging time for both of us, but the love and support of our daughters, neighbors, and my church family is what has gotten us through. We are both doing well now in our respective recoveries, and I hope to see you all in church very soon.

-Jamie Sanders & Jim Witt

Dear Friends, I would like to thank you for all the expressions of sympathy you have given me during this difficult time of losing my brother. Your kindness and support has meant the world to me. Thank you and God bless.

-Gail Deckert, FPC Office

SPECIAL BLESSINGS: For those hurting and in pain, we ask your blessing and your healing. We also ask your blessing for the caretakers, struggling to help their loved ones with patience and perseverance. Give them strength for the days ahead, and help them to feel your love and grace. In Christ we pray. Amen.

Outreach and Mission

Connie Darne, elder

Wednesday, May 15, was our last Habitat for Humanity lunch until September 18, 2024. The Habitat volunteers work only during the early morning hours during the summer to avoid the heat. The volunteers asked me to convey to you their appreciation for our support of their program as well as the delicious food that is prepared for them. So, I Thank You Very Much!!

We are working with the families of the Granbury Housing Authority on summer fun activities. We have offered one gift card per family to their choice of PINS Bowling Alley, Granbury Skate Rink, or Cinergy Movie Theatre, as well as a variety of food establishments; or a one-month membership to the YMCA. At the time I am writing this, I am waiting to receive their selections.

June will begin our annual Rack Room Gift card drive. We are requesting donations of $25 gift cards to Rack Room Shoes. The gift cards will be collected throughout the month of June. You may place them in the offering tray, take them to the office, or simply write a check w/Rack Room Shoes in the memo line, and we will do the shopping. In July we will present the gift cards to the Rainbow Room, who will in turn provide them to foster parents. This enables the foster children to take part in choosing their school shoes for the coming year.

We have also provided Mission Granbury with a total of three "Laundry Baskets" so far this year. The Laundry Baskets are filled with items needed by persons leaving a shelter and moving into a new residence. We typically include a set of dishes, flatware, glasses, kitchen towels, bath towels, cooking utensils, and some basic cleaning supplies. A lot of the items included in the Laundry Baskets are items donated to the Rummage Sale, with some items purchased new. This is another way that we help support the community and other community agencies.

Presentation of Plaque for Pastor Emeritus to retired Rev. Drew Travis

At a recent men's lunch the guys presented Drew with the plaque for his tenure and service to First Presbyterian Church Granbury. The inscription reads:
