Pastor's Pen...

Rev. Angela Madden Scott, Pastor, Spiritual Leader, Teaching Elder

Luke 18: 15-17 "But Jesus called for them and said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it."

Go ahead, kids, Lie in the grass.

Study the clouds.

Daydream.

Be Lazy.

Eat some ice cream.

You have our permission.

The JOYS of Summer are upon us!

A mental health break isn't just for kids; we all need to recall that the kingdom of heaven is experienced with childlike wonder. Being childlike in our faith is spiritually formative for overall spiritual well-being.

When I was a kid, I didn't wear a watch.

Now, I have two: one on each wrist. These capture many different forms of health, sleep data, steps, and communications.

Daydream means to allow your imagination to wander while your eyes are open. We may need to all lighten up more! I may need to ditch the two watches. Sometimes, doing nothing at all allows us to really listen in to God's playful spirit.

Thank you for the JOY that you all bring to worship! I am grateful to God for the call to partner in ministry alongside each of you. The Sweet Spirit of God is felt in this place in palpable and tangible ways. My family and I are so happy to be serving Christ in Granbury through FPC. You have opened wide the doors of your hearts and homes, and we have felt a place of belonging already.

We look forward to many more years.

May the heat be a reminder of God's awesome power to lighten up and enliven our lives,

With joy, Rev. Angela Madden Scott

Rev. Angela will be away July 4 and through July 12. Revs. Tim Kidd and Jimmie Johnson will be taking 'on-call' for pastoral emergencies. If you have a death or hospitalization or a crisis of any kind, feel free to reach out to them:

Session Highlights

First Presbyterian Church of Granbury

June 20, 2024, Session Meeting

Immediately Jesus made his disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of him to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd. After leaving them, he went up on a mountainside to pray.

Mark 6:45 –46

Session Spiritual Leaders met for their regularly scheduled meeting on June 20. The Spiritual Leaders invoked Christ's presence into the meeting by lighting a candle and sharing joys and concerns/pits and cherries. Session Spiritual Leaders were led on a Spiritual Formation Exercise by Rev. Madden Scott on the topic of "Transformational Leaders Embrace Change and Discomfort." Leader were given homework to discern where transformation is happening and where the Spirit is inviting us to possess a stronger sense of urgency for radical change.

Session Highlights:

- Session will begin meeting monthly on the 3rd Tuesday of each month at 4:30 p.m.
- During the month of July the Session has a SABBATH.

Welcome New Members!

A life altering move to a new area, buying a house online without physically touring it, delays in furniture delivery, an auto accident, learning new names and faces, all while being a parent and a supportive spouse—Jack Scott does all that. And he laughs as he tells his story.

Born in Kansas and wrapped in the warm arms of a loving extended family, he recalls images straight from a Hallmark card of holidays spent together full of music, food and fellowship. Aiming toward a law degree, after his college graduation with 2 degrees in Political Science and History at Phillips University, he took a job selling Porsches at a luxury auto dealership...and remained for 25 years, retiring as a company general manager. After that: stock broker, bank broker, and lastly, following his passion for antiques and history, he began collecting, selling, and finally offering items for auction on eBay at its height. He started Antique Retriever LLC.

Rev. Angela and Jack met while she was in dental sales. She rebuffed him, wouldn't speak to him on the phone. So he developed a great telephone friendship with Angela's mother, who convinced Angela to date him. Not afraid to follow their dreams and impulses after prayerful consideration, they sold everything, and Angela entered Louisville Seminary.

The Madden Scott family includes 15 year old son Major and the Golden Retriever Monk and Callie the calico cat.

Jack cites the tragic loss of a child as his portal to a closer and more personal relationship with God, to ask and then truly listen for answers. Look for Jack on the front row at worship. Go by and say hello to this welcome addition to our church family.

Earl and Nancy Mielke first became familiar with Granbury after their daughter moved to the Fort Worth area about 10 years ago. "We would come down to visit and rent a townhouse for about a month or so," Nancy said. The couple eventually decided to move south after living 45 years in Hudson, Wisconsin. "Our daughter convinced us," Nancy said. The Mielkes now live in a condo at Harbor Lakes.

Earl retired from the real estate business. Nancy was first a teacher, and then worked with Earl in real estate. Both of their children were born in Hudson. The Mielkes are lifelong boaters and especially enjoyed the beautiful St. Croix River, which divides Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Now in the Lone Star State, Nancy said the couple appreciates the Texas hospitality. "People are very friendly, courteous, and even hold the doors open for you," she said. "But we're still getting used to the crazy drivers."

Are they getting used to the Texas weather? "Oh, don't ask," Nancy said with a laugh.

The hot summers were expected, but the couple was caught off-guard with a Texas ice storm after moving to Granbury. They lost both electricity and water during the winter event. Nancy recalled how Earl went looking for ice melt to put on their sidewalk. After asking several store employees where he could find the ice melt, he finally ran across someone who knew what he was talking about. The employee just smiled and said "Most Texans don't use ice melt; they just stay in the house until the ice goes away."

"We kind of miss the four seasons in Wisconsin, but we don't miss all the snow and the 50 below temperatures we had there," Nancy said.

The Mielkes have been attending First Presbyterian for some time, and recently became official members with the arrival of new pastor, Rev. Angela Madden Scott. Nancy said it's been a blessing to be a part of the church choir. "I have eye problems and had to give up driving. The choir gives me a chance to socialize and meet new people," she said. "And I really appreciate the large print music I've been given so I can see what we're singing."

Join Us for Summer Choir

Summer Choir began on June 9th. Anyone that would like to try out singing in the choir, please join us in Memorial Hall at 9:15 on Sunday mornings to practice a traditional/gospel piece for each service.

Outreach and Mission

Immediately Jesus made his disciples get into the boat... Connie Darne, Spiritual Leader Elder

It's been a couple of months since I have included a Mission Spotlight. This month I am happy to share with you information about a group of caring, concerned, and loving people who have opened their hearts to people in need. That group of people are members of a "FAITH FAMILY," (A term we have heard a lot in the past three weeks, and I love it!) The Faith Family of FPC Granbury opened their hearts this month to the foster children in Hood County. In a Minute for Mission, Vanessa Faulkner shared with us her experience and first-hand knowledge of the need of foster families in our community. Thank You, Vanessa. I am thrilled to report back to the Faith Family that we have raised $5,730.00 for the Rack Room Gift Card Drive. God has blessed us and we are sharing those blessings. We still have another Sunday left in the month. I can't say THANK YOU enough!

In July, the gift cards will be presented to Rainbow Room President, Vanessa Faulkner. The foster parents will receive the gift cards this month to ensure the kids have time to pick out their back-to-school shoes before beginning school in August.

The Outreach & Mission Committee is already beginning to think about our Thanksgiving and Christmas activities for the Housing Authority. We encourage you to share any ideas you may have or if you would like to join us, we meet on the first Wednesday of the month at 10:00 a.m. in Fellowship Hall. August 7 is our next meeting. Committee members are Saunya Bishop, Mylene Bole, Bianca Brownfield, Julie Dean, Lina Hardin, Liz Lacy, Kathy Long, and Beverly McKusick.

Hope everyone has a safe and festive Fourth of July.

Stewardship

Immediately Jesus made his disciples get into the boat...

Dan Crise, Spiritual Leader Elder

All that we have and all that we are as individuals are gifts from God. The gifts that we have been blessed with include not only our belongings, property, and money, but also our time, our character traits, our intelligence, our creativity, our special skills and talent, our interpersonal strengths, and any other facets of our lives that we may possess. Jesus tells us, “Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom... For where your treasure is, There your heart will also be.” (Luke 12:32 and 12:34 NRSV)

Biblical stewardship beckons us to use all these gifts in God-pleasing ways, not for God’s benefit but for sharing our abundance with all of God’s people, particularly those less fortunate than ourselves. After all, that is a core element of our church mission. The more each of us aligns our individual life with God’s purposes and we give from our hearts, the happier and more fulfilled we become. And why not? We learn to live more fully as disciples of Christ. We grow in awareness and set new priorities that bring us closer to God.

Throughout our redemptive history, giving back our time, talents, and treasure has been an honor and opportunity extended to everyone within our community of faith. Consider the widow Jesus praised for her generosity, though she gave only two nearly worthless copper coins. Jesus called her contribution an important and abundant offering and He praised her for her generosity.

Why not pick an aspect of your life that you would like to expand and share in stewardship with God’s purposes? Perhaps it might be in your interpersonal relationships and help with other people, particularly with those in need of comfort and care who are grieving over the loss or bad health of a loved one? Maybe giving more of your time in service to our church in worship activities or helping on a committee? Possibly contributing your unique and individual talent and skill to a community service program? The list goes on with countless other ways to engage in Christian Stewardship

If we look at various examples of biblical scripture, it becomes abundantly clear that we are encouraged To use whatever gifts we have received from God for use in service to Christ, The Bible tells us,

“Like good stewards of the grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received.” (1 Peter 4:10 NRSV)

Prayer of the Month

Immediately Jesus made his disciples get into the boat...

Gloria Mitchell, Coordinator

First Presbyterian is very fortunate that we have a new pastor, and she is amazing. Her sermons are very meaningful, and her enthusiasm is contagious. She mentioned in one of her sermons that we need to laugh often, and we need to look at everyday circumstances to find the positive.

Our country recently celebrated D Day, the end of World War II. And On July 4th we’ll be Celebrating Independence Day. We are very fortunate that our country is at peace.

We have been thinking of Les and Brenda Staples, who needed to leave their home in Ruidoso, because of fires nearby. Our newspaper mentioned a fire in California.

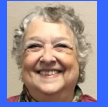

Dear God, we thank you for sending Reverend Angela Madden Scott to lead our church. She is a perfect fit for our congregation. We are very fortunate that our nation is at peace, and we pray that our country remains at peace. We pray for peace between Israel and Palestine and for peace between Russia and Ukraine. And we pray for peace among the other countries of the world. We also pray for campers to be extra careful that they don’t cause fires to start. Please protect the firefighters who are fighting fires, help them extinguish the fires, and help people stay out of the paths of fires.

In Jesus’s name, Amen.

FUN Circle is taking a break for the summer. I hope you're enjoying yours. We have a wonderful schedule for next year and I'm really looking forward to the 24/25 year. FUN Circle meets on the last Wednesday of each month at 10:30am, so mark your calendars.

FELLOWSHIP has had a busy June with welcoming the Scott family and the church picnic. The fun continues with the 4th of July lunch party after the parade. After the parade we will be serving hotdogs with all the fixin's, (including chili and cheese), chips, beverages, fruit and desserts. We are asking the congregation to help provide fruit platters and desserts. So, watch the parade and then come into Fellowship hall to cool off and enjoy an all American lunch.

As I'm writing this article, the picnic has not happened yet. I'm hoping that you had a great time. The Fellowship Committee would love to get feedback from you regarding the picnic. What can we change to make it better? What did you like or not like? What additional games and other activities would you like for us to add next year?

For my recipe this month I'm doing a great summer pie. I'm calling it:

The Easiest Pie You'll Ever Make

- Premade graham cracker crust.
- 1 6 oz container of any flavored yogurt
- 1 tub of cool whip
- Fruit to match the flavor of your yogurt

Mix yogurt with the cool whip by hand until blended.

Stir in 1/2 c of cut up fruit

Pour into pie crust and put in the freezer.

I like to decorate the top with larger pieces of fruit before putting it in the freezer.
Remove from the freezer about 1/2 hour before serving. Enjoy!

Thank you, Jack & Ruby for the Endowment to FPC Granbury

Jack Walters was soft spoken, kind and grandfatherly. If you questioned, listened, and really were interested, he would delve into the past and reveal some of his life stories. During WWII, in the islands, Jack was taken as a prisoner of war. Jack was beaten and barely given enough food to survive. Jack, to my recollection, stood at about 6'2". After being rescued at the end of the war, he weighed only 89 pounds.

Ruby Walters was a petite, quiet woman with a charming sense of humor and was a true lady. She was brought up in an orphanage and never knew her parents. Ruby and Jack married after the war. They deeply loved and respected each other, but never had any children of their own and had no other family,

Neither Ruby or Jack had any religious training or affiliation in the 1980's. Dorothy Campbell (our social butterfly) encouraged them to come to our church. From the first day they attended, they felt God's loving call and one could actually see the change in their lives and the depth of their faith. As older adults, Jack and Ruby were baptized and became members of the First Presbyterian Church of Granbury. They attended church regularly where friendships and bonds were formed.

Years later, Jack and Ruby moved away and we lost touch. This week, the Granbury church was contacted by the lawyers from their estate. Jack and Ruby left close to half a million dollars to our church. Were we not just reminded of the parable of the mustard seed? How will we use this contribution to grow our faith and our church, to open the doors for those seeking or those in need? Jack and Ruby found the love of Christ while attending First Presbyterian. May God guide us to use this endowment to further his kingdom on earth. Thank you Jack and Ruby!
